

MRS. N.J. KESSLER, OF MRS. N. J. KESSLER, OF SALT LAKE CITY, WHO IS SUITING HER MOTHER MRS. H.H.SALISBURY OF WEBSTER

Will you ever quite forget just how cold will you ever quite forget just how cold you were on Thursday?

Will you ever forget how your hair blew in your eyes; how many times you had to stop to repin your hat; how the dust circled round in eddies in the grand esplanade just in front of the Liberal Arts Building and successfully cut off your view of the troops; how wastiy interesting was the Millian Dishow vastly interesting was the Military Pa-rade and how astenishingly young all the regulars looked; how sunburned the Presi-dent's nose was; how cold—colder, I mean-chilis coursed up and down your spine when that chorus of 2,900 voices same "Unfold" abominable arrangements were for the assembling of the chorus, and made for the assembling of the choice, and how the members had to dodge sentries and how the members had to dodge sentries and break through the procession in order to get into their seats on time; how magnificent the Cardinal appeared in his red robes; how the Board of Lady Managers managed to look so warm and comfortable and genial and altogether charming in the thinnest kind of frocks and the filmsiest kind of tulle hats which they all wore; how nobody got anything to eat until night out at the grounds; how remarkably well the street cars, around which clustered our greatest apprehensions, took care of everybody, and how courteous and politic all erybody, and how courteous and polite all the motormen and conductors were; how broud we all were of Mrs. Blair, and what a pretty sight it was to see all her Morning Choral Club inside the grounds giving hearty cheers and handkerchief waves when she drove in at the head of the procession with President Roosevelt, Mr. Francossion with President Roosevelt, Mr. Fran-cis, Mr. Carter et al.; what a magnificant showing the Colorado military made, espe-cially the staff of Governor Peabody; what enormous throngs were on the grounds to see the fireworks on Thursday night, cold as the wind blew; how it always seems to be St. Louis luck to have wretched weather when we want to put out best feet. when we want to put our best foot fore-most; what a distinguished and altogether most; what a distinguished and altogether unusual reception was that of Friday night at the St. Louis Club; what immense distances there are in the Fair Grounds, and how footsore and weary we all were fighting the wind and getting from the Liberal Arts building to the Administration building and back again; how surprised everybody from out of town is at the progress made with the buildings, and the vastness and the Fair project; and lastly how indicates the surprised everybody from out of the surprised everybody from out of town is at the progress made with the buildings, and the vastness of the Fair project; and lastly how indicates of the Fair project; and lastly, how indis-putably, undeniably glad we are that the Dedication is over, and well over? Will

Governor Peabody of Colorado made a reg-ular football rush to reach the President the first afternoon of his visit-Wednesday, when he addressed the Good Roads Conven-

Brigadier General Sherman Bell, who, as you know, was a Rough Rider; Colonel John Q. MacDonald, Colonel W. R. Gh-bert of Colorade Springs, Colonel Brown and several others of the staff went out to a West End photographer to have a group picture taken, and happened to hear that President Roosevelt had just arrived on Grand avenue at the Odeon. They made for the building, which, naturally, was packed to suffocation, with not one chance in ten thousand of reaching the stage and getting a handshake from the President.

Now the staff had on its full dress uni-Now the staff had on its full dress uniform, which I may say, incidentally, was quite the most elegant of the troop regalia worn all week, being very elaborate with gold braid and button, and brand new in the bargain. They were especially good-looking fellows, well set up and handsome, and with all this paraphernalia they looked "simply stunning," as a High School girl behind them was led to remark. So with the uniforms and a little nerve they formed a wedge, forced their way from foyer to the front, and before anybody could say the front, and before anybody could say "Jack Robinson" were hobnobbing with the President in great style. General Bell went up San Juan with Roosevelt, and is an especial favorite of his especial favorite of his.

The Baroness Moncheur, better known in St. Louis by her maiden name of Charlotte Clayton, was one of the markedly handsome women at the brilliant assembly handsome women at the brilliant assembly on Friday night in the St. Louis Club. She wore a severely plain black velvet gown, en princesso, with long floating angel sleeves of fine black jetted net; a high closs-fitting collar of pearls, clasped with diamond rildes. Her coloring is exquisite; her complexion flawless, and her eyes bright and brown as ever. She attracted bright and brown as ever. She appeared taller than usual in the long, clinging velvet, but her figure is so well proportioned that one thought not of extreme height, but of her magnificent proportions.

Such a jabbering of foreign tongues as there was in the dressing-room reserved for the foreign women! I heard Mme, des Planches replying in French as the Baron-ess kept up a lively chatter with her, in tained in these garments.

English. Half the women talked either cards announcing the marriage of their French or English, and received replies in daughter, Laura Charlotte, to Mr. Curtis another tongue. Mrs. Thompson, who is McCluer on Wednesday evening, April 29, at Arkadelphia, Ark. At home after May 15, Harvest Home, O'Fallon, Mo. another tongue. Mrs. Thompson, who is Mrs. Russell Stanhope's and Miss Zar'ina Thompson's mother had Mme, Fonts-Ster-ling of Havana with her, and spoke Spanish with her guest; Italian with Mme, des Planches, French with all the other women and English when she left the dressingroom and entered the rooms where people were receiving.

It was by long odds the most cosmopolitan gathering of society people that the town has ever known, and its like will not be seen soon again in this Missouri State of

Baroness Moncheur. I neglected to say above, is in town for several days longer and will stop over to-day and to-morrow with her intimate friends, the Misses Mor-

The Board of Ledy Managers had a good time. They said so, and nobody who watched them cavorting about from Fair grounds to Wednesday Clubrooms; from the Southern Hotel to the St. Louis Club and the D. A. R. functions, would dispute their word, for they looked undeniably harny and content. Mrs. Doniel Manning happy and content. Mrs. Daniel Manning, a very gracious woman, says St. Louis seems homelike now, and I'm sure that we are all glad of the fact. Mrs. Manning, by the way, is one of the few American women to wear the Cross of the Legion of Honor. Her decoration shone forth on her white satin gown Friday night.

The display of jewels on Friday night was quite as dazzling as we might have expected. St. Louis women are not given made with the buildings, and the vastness of the Fair project; and lastly, how indisputably, undeniably glad we are that the Dedication is over, and well over? Will you ever forget?

Did you happen to hear how the staff of Governor Peabody of Colorado made a regular football rush to reach the President the first afternoon of his visit—Wednesday, when he addressed the Good Roads Convention?

Brigadier General Sherman Bell, who, as you know, was a Rough Rider; Colonel John Q. MacDonald, Colonel W. R. Glibert of Colorado Springs, Colonel Brown and several others of the staff went out to to the wearing of many paubles but when of curiously-carved Etruscan gold, around Mrs. E. R. Brown's slender throat. Mrs. Brown was a very handsome young matron with Governor Odell's party, Mrs. Sam Capen has a dainty necklace, made of pearls and diamonds, set in marguerite de-sign, and graduated in size. Strings of pearls were worn by five women out of every moven. Mrs. McKenna (Katherine Kerens) displayed her magnificent deep blue sapphires, each stone surrounded by dia-monds, and hung from a siender gold chain. Mrs. Annie McLean Moores were some lovely Venetian corals in a deep rose pink.

SERENA LAMB. WEDDINGS.

Wedding Silver-Mermod & Jaccard's. Miss Estelle M. Gunn and Alfred T. Brown were married on Thursday eve. at 5 o'clock at St. Kevin's Church, the Reverend W. Shea performing the ceremony. The bride had no attendants save her mother and brother, John M. Gunn. The couple will go to housekeeping after May 4 at No. 1513 Ohio avenue.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Deiss to Mr. Edw. J. Horst took place Wednesday, April 22, the Reverend Jos. Sleben of Holy Trinity Church performing the ceremony. Miss Lens Delss was bridesmand. Mr. Charles Keller served as gromsman. The bride wore a silk mull gown, elaborately trimmed in lace, the long trained skirt deeply flounced. Her tulle veil was festioned with a spray of roses, and she carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a similar gown, carrying carnation pinks. Mr. and Mrs. Horst will be at home to their friends at No. 1019 Lynch street.

Nordica-De Rezzke-Metropolitan Opera-house Orchestra, Music Hail, May 11. Mr. J. H. Collins announces the engage-ment of his daughter, Sara L., to Mr. Chas. L. W. Hodgdon.

OUR GREAT $5 BOYS' SUITS

It does not matter how little one may be a judge of values; you'll instantly detect, figuratively speaking, the pure ring of sterling worth in our standard boys' suits at five dollars—this price is not sufficient to pay for the extra value of materials used and the higher class of workmanship con-

We are establishing our five-dollar boys' suits as the best obtainable—every new weave and color combination-mostly exclusive patterns.

The marriage of Mrs. Carris Nabbefeld, formerly Miss Steiner, and Mr. Gus Hegel took place at the residence of the Reverend Father ligen of the Holy Ghost Church on Tuesday, April 28, at 3 o'clock.

Big Four the only line running through sleepers between St. Louis and Boston.

Miss Margarett Walsh of No. 22 St. Clair avenue and Mr. Edward Jones of Omaha, Neh., were married at the Sacred Heart Church, Wednesday morning. The Reverend Father Glimartin performed the ceremony. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Nellie Walsh, while Mr. Luke Walsh, the bride's brother served the bridegroom as best man. The bride wore white mousseline de scie over cream silk, and carried a large bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmald wore a dress of white lawn and carried a bouquet of pink roses. After the be at home to their friends after May 1.

Calling Cards-Mermod & Jaccard's.

Mermod & Jaccard's-Baoadway and Lo-

Miss Augusta Fehlig of No. 1438 Grand avenue entertained her euchre club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Those present

Misses—
Jessie Barry,
Otilic Kattemeyer,
Clara Bohn,
Lillie Windmann,
Clara Fehlig,
Linella Dissendant Ethel Morris, Clara Wickmann, Elda Barry, Mamie Kaltmeyer, Carrie Schilling. Luella Dagenhart, Augusta Fehlig.

Mrs. Ambrosius of Collinsville. Ill., entertained the St. Louis Gibson Club and the Mizzama B. B. Club on Tuesday. The day was spent in games and singing. A dainty luncheon was served, the table being decorated with white roses. Those present wars.

Louise Ambrosius, Bertha Ambrosius, Louise Lochmann, Marie Lochmann, Jennie Galleana,

Elsie Senewald, Anna Shroeppel, Anna Ringenback, Martha Rossberg, Lena Shroeppel. Charles Keenig, George Reinhardt, Charles Klasek, Acting Manager, Charles Wagner, Captain. Kurt Wendler.

lessleurs— Jim Powers, J. Jaeger, J. Hanna, Walter Wackerlein, Harry Johns, George Schnell,

The Herald Dancing Club will entertain its friends, with an informal dance, May 8, at Semple and Easton avenues.

One of the events of the past week was the O. B. C. Informal dance, Friday even-ing, at No. 911 North Vandeventer avenue. Among those present were:

Alice Garlich. M. Hirschberg, Bertha Singer, Julia Cicardi, M. Meierpeter, Anna Albera,
Erna Reinert,
Mary Delaney,
Leona Smith,
Marie Hueisman,
Mabel Elbersole, J. Osterholt,
Edith Meyer,
Jennie Johnson,
Josie Burke,
Leia Wachter,
Lebbeiter,
A. Klemst,
Seller, Rese Camein, Emelie Cemein, Juliet Leber, L. Schies, Edith McPhee, Edith McPhee,
M. Scarey,
M. Schles,
Emma Achloffke,
Lillian Meyer,
Teece Powers,
L. Meler,
Anna Bougner,
Bessie Rohan,
Mamie Engleman,
Mary Carroll,
E. Riddag,
M. Shriner,
Agnes Crowley,
L. Ellison,
M. Runkel,
Mabel Hayes,
L. Schall, Seller, Mary Seller, Annabell Healy, P. Blumberg, E. Marshal, Julia Burke, ulia Burke.
Lawrence,
L. Mentrup,
Mentrup,
Abeln,
Abeln,
Brinkmeyer,
Brinkmeyer,
L. Pappe,
L. Ellis,

The first performance of the Gratio

L. Hamebrink,

Mary Witt,

Lusie Wynn, Maud Collins, Fannie Whipp, C. Hirschberg, cess, being slargely attended by residents of the hearby suburbs, Maplewood, Ellendale, etc. 'In Old Virgina' was produced and seemed to give satisfaction, the participants receiving several curtain calls, Masses Abbie and Louise Daynail, Eleanor Dueringer, Messis, Billy S. Barth, John Shaw, Jannes Ryan, Leo M. Hill, William Howe, John Howe, Sanuel Bushnel, and Charles Roberson were in the cast.

The annual entertainment of the Junior Bible Class of Fountain Park Congregational Sunday School will take place on the evening of May 15, at Cabanne Arcade Hall.

Nordica-De Reszke, May 11. Tickets now selling at French Piano Company. Mrs. F. B. Mathis entertained the Quiet Ten Bowling Club Saturday at her home. No. 1237 Blackstone avenue. The members present were: Mesdames—

R. W. Gartside J. F. Quinlivan, Brouter, Misses-Alice Murray, J. D. Roy, F. Ford, F. Wissler, Members of the Modern Musicale enjoyed a pleasant spring programme at Mrs. J. C. W. Meyer's on Friday afternoon. Among the numbers were:

Mrs. J. W. Woods Mrs. L. Polston. Love's Sorrow Mrs. L. Poisson.

Mrs. F. A. Linnemann.

Souvenir Waltz Mrs. J. A. Harrison. Mrs. J. C. W. Meyer. A. Rose Pable. W. Meyer. Hawley
Sweetheart Mirs. L. K. Sommets.

Mrs. F. R. Vogt.
Marceau Characteristique. Wallenhaupt
Miss A. Mueller.

Rich Cut Glass-Mermod & Jaccard's. The Cottage Bewling Club held its weekly meeting Friday evening. Mrs. Bodecke holds the club record for the highest single game, and Miss Kate Gamewell has the nighest score for three games. For the gentlemen, Mr. Pat Maloney has the high single and three games, Mr. Ed Bodecke being second. The club will close the season with a bowling party next Saturday.

The realms of both fact and fiction were invaded by the members of the Clotho Club at their last meeting, which was held at the readence of Mrs. Cohick. No. M27 Lacretia avenue, on Friday, April 24. As truth is so often stranger than fiction, the answers to roll-call on the subject, "My Hobby," were in some instances quite out of the ordinary. That of Mrs. Ferguson received the complimentary vote. After the routine of business the members and their guests listened to the reading of original short stories by the club. This is made a special feature on one day of each year, and forms a programme that is much enjoyed. Those who entertained their hearers with a clever blending of fact and fiction were: Dr. Sara Bernard, Mrs. Kenney, Mrs. Cohick. Mrs. Beach, Mrs. Dana, Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Benton. During the serving of the dainty refreshments one of the guests, Miss Ettinger, and also the young daughter of the hostess, furnished some beautiful music. Among the guests was Mrs. Coykendall of Knoxville, Tenn. who is visiting her sister. Mrs. Benton. The club will hold its next meeting May 8 at the residence of Mrs. Ferguson, 464 Cook avenue. The realms of both fact and fiction were

The P. E. O. met on Monday afternoon, April 27, at the residence of Mrs. A. R. Morgan, No. 3632 Blaine avenue. Miss Jennie M. A. Jones taked in forcible and interesting manner. She was presented with a souvenir spoon from the club. After selections of instrumental and vocal music by Mrs. Coffman of the Tuesday Club, and Miss Teas, a P. E. O., and refreshments furnished by hostess, the session closed to meet with Mrs. A. Deane Cooper on Monday, May II.

MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS. Wedding Invitations-Mermod & Jac-

Miss Emma Glazebrook of No. 3654 Cook avenue, St. Louis, entertained a few friends at luncheon on Wednesday at her cottage, No. 7 Stevenson avenue, Pasadena, Cal., where she has been spending the winter with her mother and sisters.

MISS KATIE PERSINGER.

Of No. 4980 Arsenal street, who will wed
Mr. Fred Ziegenhein of No. 2523 Cherokee street, nephew of former Mayor Ziegenhein, in the latter part of May,

Mr. Charles F. Breuer entertained friends at his home last Monday evening after the party had left a dance. Among the merry-makers were:

Misses—
Kate Cornelius,
Clara Breuer,
E. Knobeloch,
Alice Skerrett,
Messleurs—
Oliver Gorla,
Fred Marsden,
Jack Cornelius

Will Niclas, J. Murphy, Charles Breuer. Jack Cornelius, Clarence F. Lloyd,

Your husband wants you to hear Nordica-De Reszke. Ask him, Tickets selling. Miss Lillian Weber of Kirkwood, Mo., entertained friends Sunday evening at her home. Music and dancing were the enjoyment of the evening. Among those present were:

Misses— Nellie Blaner, Lillian Weber, Antoinette Weber, Maud Foster, Lulu Preeser.

Cora Marquitz, Ada Yackey. Nellie Weber, Emma Breher. Clarise Yackey, Messieurs—
Joe Kerner,
Joe Hoffmann,
Wm. G. Soehngen,
George Blauer,
Mossieurs and Mestames—
Anthony Marquitz,
Theo. Weber,

Jerome Marquitz,
Joe Franze,
Edw. Godfrey,
William Weber.
William Preeser,
George Foster.

On Tuesday evening a farewell surprise party was given to Mr. Vaughn Koerner at his home, No. 911 North Euclid avenue. The house was decorated with flowers and World's Fair bunting. The evening was spent in music, dancing and games. At a late hour a repast was served.

Among those present were:

Messieurs and MesdamesN. P. Logan, J. Floto.

MessieursVaughn Koerner, Walter Doyan,
Ely Cahill.
Henry Stinchcomb,
Seely Bunn.
Harold Branch, Edward Lampe,
Charles Ashcraft, William Coogan,

Charles Ashcraft Misses—
Bernice Pierson,
Eila Pearson,
Marion James,
Rose Lawrence,
Emma Lawrence,
Ethel Fiske.
Maud Kirkpatrick,

Walter Doyan, Ely Cahill, Ollie Fisher, Len Cundiff, Edward Lampe, William Coogan, Gertrude Kirkpatrick. Eva Bridge. Lucile Logan, Marie Floto, Mena Fosten of Wisconsin.

Best Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's. Best Watches—Mermod & Jaccard's.

The Misses Annie, Carrie and Emily Kiburs entertained friends in honor of Miss Bertha Lysacht, who is visiting from St. Joseph, Mo., Saturday afternoon, with a "flower word" contest, for which prizes were offered. A luncheon was served after the game. The guests were:

Mesdames—
Ed Gould, Anna Gans, Louis Heede, Maurice Murphy, Anna Stearns

Misses—
Sophia Young, Bertha Hovelman, Henrietta Murphy, Louise Murphy, Daisy Funk, Emily Bergeman, Helen Hovelman, Tillie Sanders, Julia Swartz,

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. H. Prait entertained to the Monticello Hotel Saturday evening, April 25, in honor of Mr., and Mrs. William

MISS GRACE GOODWIN
Of Evansville, Ind., who is visiting Miss Corinne English of Forest Park University.

E. Andrews of Washington City. The guests enjoyed music, vocal and instrumental, by Mrs. A. D. Cooper, Miss Olivia Brown and Mr. Ottmar Hall. Another pleasing feature of the evening was the toasts, the host as tonstmaster, and responses by the Reverend Dr. Johnston, the Reverend Mr. Tyrrel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Andrews, Mrs. Dysart and the hostess. Messieurs and Mesdames—

Mrs. Andrews, J. S. Kendrick, Doctor J. W. Frank Keller, Adams. Dewitt Lukens.

J. S. Kendrick, Frank Keller, Dewitt Lukens, E. P. Helson, A. R. Morgan, George Wagoner. Adams,
Albert Andrews,
Preston Burnett,
Birney Dysart,
Frank P. Hays, Reverend Messieurs— J. L. H. Johnston, Mesdames— F. G. Tyrrell.

J. E. Gorse. Izellah Bullow. O. Holl.

Mrs. Bausemer entertained with a coffee Saturday, May 2, in honor of her sister, Mrs. P. S. Anneke of Duluth, Minn., who is visiting here with her youngest son, Master Victor Anneke.

At an informal luncheon given Saturday by Miss Susan A. Parker of No. 5280 Washington avenue to her class of 1909. Hosmer Hall, an announcement of her engagement to Mr. William Wayne Butts of Philadelphia, Pa., was made by Miss Maud Hubbell, It was a surprise to all and Miss Parker was the recipient of hearty congratulations from all present, among whom were: were: Mrs. Presley Allen. Misses...

Sadie Smith, Hilda Kolb, Maud Hubbell, Ella Belle Greensfelder, Hattle Greens-felder.

Mrs. Alfred Clark of No. 5159 Morgan street entertained Friday evening in honor of her daughter. Mrs. Will Wingate of Shelbyville, Ind. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Keppel, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Spinney, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Edgar, Mrs and Miss Nettle Morn, Doctor and Mrs. C. H. Dunning, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Higgins, Morning, Noon and Night, Big Four trains leave St. Louis for Clacinnati.

leave St. Louis for Cibeinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Davis of Shrewsbury Park., celebrated their twentieth anniversary last saturday evening. The house was decorated with apple blossoms and other spring flowers. One of the amusing features of the evening was the mock marriage ceremony, at which the Reverend R. B. Davis officiated. The bridal couple were attended by five bridesmalds and groomsmen. Others who gave music and recitations for the amusement of the guests were; Miss Lillie Hartry, Mr. H. Cutter, Mr. E. B. Pope, Mr. Jessie F. Jones and Mr. Chas. Lillingston. Later in the evening the guests were ed to the Arcade, next door, where supper was served. After their return the young people danced and all were presented with favors in the shape of small china plates.

Your sweetheart wants you to hear Nor-dica-De Reszke. French Plano Company selling tickets.

A party was given to Miss Louise Cowell Friday night before her departure for England. The affair was a surprise, having been quietly arranged by her friends at No. 3025 Morgan street. The entertainment included musle, dancing and an old-fashioned candy-pulling. A pleasing feature of the evening was the presentation of a pretty souvenir. This was a clever poem by Mrs. Mildred S. McFaden. The verses, apropos the occasion, were made into a booklet and

On last Wednesday evening Miss Lena Loben's home was a scene of unusual brilliancy. The parlors were decorated with lilies of the valley. The entertainment consisted of music by Ada Land, a duet by the Misses Emma Scudder and Della McGraw, after which came a recitation by Miss Georgia Dauson. At midnight a repast was served. Those who enjoyed the evening were:

served. Those were:
Misses—Joe Walsch,
Joe Serringer.
Georgia Dauson,
Linda Wade,
Delia McGraw,
Messleurs—
Daniel Kagel,
Doctor Little,
Noble Mondy,
A. W. Mesner,
Ed Welsch,

Emma Scudder.

Ada Land, May Corcorain, Ella Willis,

A birthday surprise party was given to Mrs. Frank Hannebaum on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Hannebaum received many presents. The entertainment consisted of prize bowling and instrumental music by Miss Lillie Drewes. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Hannebaum, assisted by Miss Carrie Hannebaum and Miss Sams. Those who enjoyed the afternoon were: were: Mesdames—

Kurtz,
Nash,
Dewing,
Drewes
Fredericks,
Oberreider,
Beyer,

Misses--Carrie Hannebaum, Stina Tolck, Francis Hannebaum, Lillie Drewes

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Pelifer. No. 4221 Arco avenue. Sunday, in the nature of a birthday surprise given in honor of their daughter. Hazel. Among the features of the afternoon, the children enjoyed games and dancing, after which a repast was served. Among the merry-makers were: Misses—

Misses—

Minnette Pelifer. Adele Trott, Annie Mueller, Nellie Lewis, Rosse Mueller, Mabel Kirkwood, Amelia Wackerlin, Nelda Pfisterer, Lucy Mackle, Messieurs—

Willia Mueller.

John Francy, Edward Pfeiffer,

A surprise party was given to Miss Gertie Cardwell in honor of her seventeenth birthday on Tuesday. The evening was spent in dancing, singing and other amusements.
The guests were as follows:
Messicuts—
John Eagan,
Frank O'Keefe,
Harry Evans,
James McCann,
John Snider,
John Walker,
Gatheiman,
Misses—
Angelina Walker

Esther Williams

Angelina Walker, Sadle McKenna, Ada Sortz. Nettle Kegef, Julia Kegel, Emily Roskopf, Esther Williams, Margaret Beyers, Laura Shall, Mae Cardwell, Alice Cardwell, Gertie Cardwell.

Miss Laura A. Watters of No. 5240 Maple avenue gave a tea in honor of Miss Amy Luce. No. 5600 Cates avenue. Saturday. April 25. The afternoon was spent playing progressive games, of which Miss Luce won first prize, which was a luncheon cloth.

Mrs. Charles E. Thomas won the stored prize, which was an opera bag.

CHARD-SPELLBRINK.

W. H. Chard of No. 4014 Cook avenue was married Tuesday afternoon to Miss Jennie B. Speilbrink of No. 2735 Washington avenue. The ceremony was performed at St. Bridget's Church by the Reverend Father Fenion. The couple will reside at No. 1027 Pendleton avenue.

Among those present at the wedding were Misses Grace Graham, Rudine Speilbrink, Irabelle Thompson, Clarice Vaughn, Pearl Smyth, Ida May Barnes, Louise Sangdon, Minnie Pierson; Mmes. J. B. Speilbrink, H. Speilbrink, R. Hoffman, J. Sanrell, E. R. Marten; Messrs. David Chard, Ralph Hardy, Frank Smyth, Arthur P. McKinnie, William G. Downing, Harry Hirsch, Rober Abel, J. H. Searles and William McChemery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Harry Air of No. 4113 Washington boulevard has returned home after a visit to Miss Lewis of Kansas City.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Robinson, formerly of No. 4515 McMillan avenue, have given up liousekeeping and are now at home at the Hotel Monticello.

Mrs. Gus Murmann of No. 5044 Minerva avenue has returned from a sojourn of three weeks in Dayton. O., where she was entertained at the home of her sister-in-law. Mrs. Charles Carroll. Several receptions and a euchre were given in her honor.

Mrs. Rose Rothschild of No. 447 Washington boulevard will be at home Sunday afternoon and evening, May 2, in honor of her daughter. Miss Jessie Rothschild, whose engagement to Mr. Joseph Marx was re-

Mrs. Samuel M. Fields of No. 3550 Washington boulevard, has returned home after a visit in Dallas, Tyler and Pecos, Tex. Miss Estella Harpold and Mable Stone of Bounville, Ind., are the guests of Miss Geor-gia Danson.

Mrs. W. D. Phillips, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Caddie Alientain, will be at the Granville Hotel for a week before leaving the city for the summer.

Nordica-De Reszke, at Music Hall, Mon-day, May II. Tickets now selling. Mrs. John Lynch of Uniontown, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. Robert Reilly at Pechmann's, Mrs. Maria I. Johnston, No. 5105 West-minster place, will depart for Europe the first week in June, accompanied by Miss Louise Curtis.

Mr. Julius Van Raalte, accompanied by his granddaughter. Miss Esther Van Raalte, will sail Wednesday for a trip abroad and will spend the greater part of their time in Holland, returning the middle of September.

Miss Arrie W. Long, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Long, will sail on the Oceanic next Wednesday for Liverpool to spend the summer visiting her father's rel-atives in England and Ireland.

Miss Clara G. Byrum of Lentner, Mo., is visiting friends in St. Louis.

Mr. J. G. Holliett, Representative from Nebraska, with his grandson, Holliett Knapp, is in the city for the Dedication cer-emonies, visiting his niece, Mrs. J. K., Stone, No. 5559 Vernon avenue. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vastine of the city have given up housekeeping and taken a suite of apartments at Hotel Beers for the Miss Mabel A. Sanders of 43% West Pine boulevard returned Saturday from Kansas City, where she served as bridesmald for Miss Maude Swygard, daughter of Mrs. James Anderson, who was married to Mr. Emery Strawn.

Fine Diamonds-Mermod & Jaccard's. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brannon of Chi-cago, who are in the city, are guests at Hotel Beers.

Colonel Joseph Lawrence of Litchfield, Ill., a veteran of the Mexican and Civil Wars, and one of the three or four surviving members of the St. Louis Legion of 1840, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. George H Steen of No. 5138 Kensington avenue.

Miss Gertrude Ivers is enjoying a trip South, visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keating. Mrs. W. T. Adair, formerly of St. Louis, but lately removed to Philadelphia, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Carmack, No. 5041 McPherson avenue, where she will spend two weeks.

Mrs. John N. Straut of Fort Niebrars, Neb., and Mrs. William Roberts and little daughter Virginia of Fort Brady, Mich., are the guests of Mrs. Margaret O'Neill Ryan of Cook avenue, and will remain until after the Dedication ceremonies.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. S. Goodwin of New York are at Hotel Beers during their visit in the city.

The engagement of Miss Amelia Landau to Frank Paul of New York is announced. Miss Landau is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Landau. No. 3163 Locust street. She is a post-graduate of the Beethoven Conservatory of Music, and is acknowledged a leading planiste, having figured prominently in many music recitals. Mr. and Mrs. M. Landau will be at home to friends Sunday evening, May 10. As this day is the brithday of the young lady's father. Mr. M. Landau, a double celebration will take place.

Mr. George Wiley and wife and Mrs. Joseph Wiley of Albany, N. Y., are visit-ing Mrs. Nicholas C. Nolan of No. 4834 Del-mar boulevard.

Miss Beulah Robinson of Kansas City, Mo., is visiting her friend, Elma Weii, at No. 4066 Lindell boulevard,

Mr. and Mrs. Trueman C. Biedsoe of Vernon avenue have sent out cards an-nouncing the arrival on the 22d of a daugh-ter, who has been named Barbara Lewis Biedsoe. The St. Louis Chapter of the United

LACKERMAN, MANAGERS E.B.KLINE.

49-425-425-N. BROADWAY.

That in point of style, quality and values surpasses anything that has been offered so far this season. It's the entire surplus stock of a noted New York manufacturer. bought at half its true value and now offered to you on the same basis. We skip all detailed description and ask you to come and see for yourself what wonderful values this event offers.

Ladies' $17.50 Suits / C Ladies' $20.00 Suits Ladies' $22.50 Suits Ladies' $12.50 Suits

Ladies' $15.00 Suits Ladies' $16.50 Suits Misses' $10.00 Suits Misses' $12.00 Suits

(14, 16 and 18 year sizes.)

Ladies' $2.50 Wash Waists at $1.00-An Offer That'll Crowd the Store With Delighted Buyers.

Just think of this! 50 dozen—an even 600—Wash Waists, made of sheer, white India linen in the newest and daintiest style of the season, with large puff sleeves, fancy tucked front and back, front panel elegantly embroidered in raised wash silk in strawberry design—set off with hemstitched drawn-work tie and tucked stock coller—the one waist you would select from a hundred. They're $2.50 values that we offer you to-morrow, Monday, at $1.00. It pays to come promptly for a bargain like this.

the me sit has all is all to see the control of the